

Provide first aid as required. (e.g. DRSABCD and 100% Oxygen).
Call Emergency Services 000 or 112 or Divers Emergency Services 1800 088 200.
Prepare for transportation to nearest Hyperbaric chamber if advised.

Secure the site and equipment

- Tag out all dive equipment involved in the incident. Do not alter equipment or turn off dive cylinders, secure site and record details.

Collect essential information and first aid response

- Injured diver/s names, condition? i.e. conscious? require resuscitation? obvious major injury/problem?
- Progressive state of patient/s e.g. stable, good colour, getting worse? Brief diving history relating to incident?
- Medical equipment on site and treatment delivered.
- Patient's full recent diving history for at least the preceding 48 hours.
- Copies of dive logs and paperwork.
- Recent and longer term medical history of patients e.g. colds, previous injuries, medications etc.
- Names, addresses and medical training of people involved in treatment.

AUSTRALIA

Contacts using phone or radio

PRIMARY CONTACT

Emergency Services Phone: 000, 112.
Radio Frequency: VHF 16, UHF 01.

Diving Medical Doctor:
DES 1800 088 200

Prepare for transportation to nearest Hyperbaric Chamber.
Give location i.e. Latitude, Longitude.

SECONDARY CONTACT

Phone and report incident to:

Maritime Safety Officer: 0414 190 051

Director WHS: 0414 190 024 or

Flinders University Security: 08 8201 2880

Provide a brief summary of the incident

Stand-by for instructions