

Schedule 2.1—Notice of employee representational rights

(regulation 2.05)

Fair Work Act 2009, subsection 174(1A)

Flinders University gives notice that it is bargaining in relation to a single-enterprise agreement (Flinders University Enterprise Agreement) which is proposed to cover employees that are employed by Flinders University and are classified as either Academic staff or Professional staff who work at one of Flinders University campus locations, with the exception of some senior staff as per clause 2.2 of the Flinders University Enterprise Agreement 2023-2026.

What is a single-enterprise agreement?

A single-enterprise agreement is an agreement between an employer and its employees that will be covered by the agreement that sets the wages and conditions of those employees for a period of up to 4 years. To come into operation, the agreement must be supported by a majority of the employees who cast a vote to approve the agreement and it must be approved by an independent authority, Fair Work Commission.

If you are an employee who would be covered by the proposed agreement:

You have the right to appoint a bargaining representative to represent you in bargaining for the agreement or in a matter before the Fair Work Commission that relates to bargaining for the agreement.

You can do this by notifying the person in writing that you appoint that person as your bargaining representative. You can also appoint yourself as a bargaining representative. In either case you must give a copy of the appointment to your employer.

If you are a member of a union that is entitled to represent your industrial interests in relation to the work to be performed under the agreement, your union will be your bargaining representative for the agreement unless you appoint another person as your representative.

Questions?

If you have any questions about this notice or about enterprise bargaining, please speak to your employer or bargaining representative, or contact the Fair Work Ombudsman or the Fair Work Commission.
